Factory of M. O'Donovan, Whitby, on Saturday, Jan. 26th, 1878. We trust that those in want of anything in this line will do well to attend the above sale as every article is made from the best material, superior finish, and warranted. See his advertisement.

CHEAP Granite Tea Sets, Cheap China Tea Sets, Cheap Glass Sets, and preserve Dishes at McKinnell's great crockery and Glassware sale.

Boots and Shoes to suit all at the new store. Matthew Bros.

SAD AND FATAL ACCIDENT.

A sad and fatal accident occured on Saturday evening, Jan. 19th inst., about 7 p. m., at a point called Beaver Creek, on the T. & N. R. R., between Uxbridge and Goodwood. One William Watson, a well-to-do farmer, on the 4th concession of Uxbridge, while on his way home from this village, walking down the track, was run into by No. 9 freight train and fatally injured. The driver, Mr. A. Laur, saw him some four or five rods before he struck him—he blew the whistle with all possible force, and reversed his engine, but it was down grade and he had a heavy train of cars on, consequently could not stop in time to save his life. Mr. Watson made no attempt to leave the track, but walked straight towards the engine. The point of the snow plow would appear to have struck him in the abdomen. He was badly cut on the right eye and the skull fractured. The train men put him in the van, and brought him to Uxbridge Station, where he was immediately attended to by Dr. Black, who did not have any hope of his recovery from the first. He was then removed to the Mansion House and rallied until 2:30 p. m. on Sunday, when he expired. On Monday morning, at his own residence, the coroner held an inquest, the result of which was,—"That William Watson came to his death by being struck with No. 10 engine, while walking on the track; the Railway Co. and employes were exhonorated from all blame." Too much credit cannot be accorded to the driver, Mr. Laur, for the very prompt manner in which he tried to save his life.

Best refined coal oil for sale at McKinnell's, by the gallon or barrel.

WE would direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Mr. Wm. Henry, in this issue.

and Sec. were re-appointed.

The Sec. was requested to communicate with A. Pilkie and M.N. Dafoe in respect to returns of 1876.

On motion of Mr. Glendinning, seconded by Mr. Burnett, the Treas. was allowed to retain $125, balance on hand, he paying 6 per cent for the same for 9 months.

Board then adjourned to meet first Saturday in June, at Port Perry.

A NEW COUNTERFEIT BANK NOTE.

F. W. Helmick received the following notification from Washington of the existence of a new counterfeit National Bank note:

UNITED STATES TREASURY DEPARTMENT, SECRET SERVICE DIVISON, OFFICE OF CHIEF,

Washington, D. C.,
December 24, 1877.

To F. W. Helmick, Cincinnati, Ohio:

A new counterfeit five-dollar note on the First National Bank of Hanover, Penn., has made its appearance. The paper is thin and color dark. Bank number 187, date February 20, 1864, and bearing signature of F. E. Sppinner and L. E. Chittenden. It is printed from same plate as the First National Bank of Tamaqua, Penn., which made its appearance about September 20, 1877.

It would be well to adv ants in your vicinity to giv to these facts, and to sugge public that all suspicious these banks of the denomina be refused.

Helmick's new method of counterfeit National Bank be found to be the best in It contains photographs of bills, also of genuine bills, person will be able to detec ence at sight. The price o including illustrations is and will be sent postpaid enclosing $1.00 to F. W Publisher, 50 West Fo
Cincinnati, O.

N. B.—Helmick's coun Coin Detector, used by bankers. Price $2.50;
upon receipt of price.

SKATING.—The Metrop
was opened last night—in good order, a large nu but to have an evening's skating. We trust that Mr. Jones, the proprietor, will do his level best to keep this rink in good order throughout the remainder of the season. Go and have a skate.

and not ten in a hundred will ever become efficient singers. In some the gift will die, others who might learn will not care to do so, while from others again the golden opportunity will have passed away.

3rd. What are the best elements to instil into the minds of our children?

Ans. A true sense of their sinful condition by nature, and the way of salvation through Christ, and the desirability of obtaining peace with God in their youth. They should also be taught obedience, industry, perseverance, economy, &c., and never if possible allow them to think that the world owes them a living. If they think so of themselves, send them to the world to try and get it before they make up their minds that they are right. Every person, man or woman, should have some means of earning a livelihood, and should use that means to add to their own and their country's prosperity. Volumes might be written on this subject. To help them to do all this, they should receive an education which will fit them to avail themselves of the means within their reach in this free, enlightened, and Christian country; and which will assist them in the struggle of life. The more general and efficient their education is, and the more the highest and noblest qualities of their minds are developed, the the privilege thus placed within their reach.

5th. Why are not teachers of the school musicians?

[illegible] the science of music shall find "something wron state of Denmark."

I have said that we are decorating our houses, not begrudge the expense, as s are rather lavish on that sur do not display that refined t we might or ought to do, pleasant effect on our senses.
stance it is not an uncommon see a South or West room, a room or Parlor, for instanc in some warm or positive c possibly grained in oak or w in walnut, while the North rooms, are done in some cool colors, such as drabs ste some other light tints, could inconsistent course be adopt in greater opposition to sim of art.

There are no people on e display such gift and talent oration of their houses, as th They seem "to the manor b brush in the hands of a means more than it appe they apparently, regardless make an extravagant use of vivid colors which is startling of an English workman. Ye liant the effect, how chaste pulation, as they seem to blend into each other like th strains of the sweetest n possess opport reach, they can l copy from, the us productions,
experienced han
rs, so broadly a
through their al edifices, and t
their nobility us, but it does hould not attemp ovements in o
is not a question
, as there is but
price of colors use but it is in the se of those colors, itute something
the dreay and meet our eye at gone deeper in ntended, I must of style and cost i
th and effect till n
W. C. Pa
yne Jan. 14th 1

All parties who contract McKinnell's previous to his books, in March last, will p them without further notic

Oxbridge Journal
24/1/1878
TNR
Accident